

SHAYNEL CLOUGH

Board Member, The House of Darla

Shaynel serves on the Board of Directors at The House of Darla, bringing over 13 years of professional experience in the hospitality industry and a deep commitment to uplifting youth through access, empowerment, and financial literacy.

Currently a Senior Sales Manager in New York City, Shaynel specializes in event planning, group sales, and strategic partnerships. She has earned multiple Circle of Excellence awards through Hilton for her outstanding leadership and client relationships. Her ability to build systems, develop customer-centered solutions, and execute high-impact events translates seamlessly into her role on the board, where she supports outreach, fundraising, and strategic growth.

As a board member, Shaynel contributes to the organization's long-term planning and programming with a focus on student enrichment, sponsorship development, and safe space initiatives. She is especially passionate about helping youth understand financial wellness, life skills, and self-worth—and actively supports HOD's annual events and cohort experiences.

Shaynel also plays a crucial behind-the-scenes role in upholding the heart and authenticity of The House of Darla. With a sharp business mind and a heart for service, Shaynel believes in the power of mentorship and showing up for the next generation. She is proud to be part of a mission-driven organization that creates transformative opportunities for youth and families across Fairfield County.

